Ragsdale Call—Pledge Harmony—Co-operation in the Movement for Atlanta's Good its board of directors, has joined heartily in the Ragsdale get-together movement, and will co-operate in the plan to reunite all factions and harmonize all elements in the city of Atlanta.

The members of the club believe in the "Atlanta spirit," and they appreciate the general good that will come with a genuine revival of this spirit, as urged by Mayor Pro Tem Ragsdale.

These resolutions were adopted yesterday by the Ad Men's club:

Whereas, There has been a plea for harmony and a revival of the true "Atlanta spirit" of the citizens laying aside differences and getting together for a strong pull towards the upbuilding and re-establishing the prestige of our city;

Be it resolved, That this organization, through its board of directors, heartily indorse this call, and pledge our hearty co-operation and support.

City Officials Hold Harmony Conference

Mayor Ragsdale Saturday at noon held the second of his "get together" conferences, at which the city officials of various departments, and it was marked by the same spirit of co-operation manifested at the first call.

In opening the conference Mr. Ragsdale said that he had been highly gratified by letters and telephone calls from citizens who praised the department heads for their announced determination to strive harder to give the people full value for their money.

Le M. Landrum, superintendent of the city schools, who was absent from the first conference, was present here. He kept his standing, must present a united front.

He said "I am a bickering and petty disputes," he said.

Walter Taylor, city chambers, purchasing agent; Dr. W. B. Summerville, superintendent of the graded schools, and a number of other officials made short talks, and there were a number of suggestions advanced for improvement of the service.

TWO-THIRDS OF COST

Reichstag Already Has Given Five Billions to War Fund,

(By Associated Press.)
BERLIN, Aug. 21.—Dr. Karl Helfferich, secretary of the German imperial treasury, speaking in the reichstag on the second reading of the war loan of $2,500,000,000, said:

"Until now 20,000,000,000 marks ($5-000,000,000) have been voted and our estimates of war needs still are exceeded by real war expenditures. The expenditure in one month is higher by one-third than the total expenditure for the war of 1914, but every German knows that the sacrifices will not be in vain. The expenditure of one million means a guarantee of unmovable determination on the part of the German people."

"During the war we will not increase the gigantic burden of the people by new taxation. A tax on war profits can only be raised at the conclusion of the war.
It will be payable only in cash and in a war loan. Our economic future must be based on the hand at the Reichsbank." The heavy burden of thousands of millions will be borne through the instigation of the war and not by us.

"Both the first war loan was covered partly by the war chest and partly by the hand at the Reichsbank. The (imperial treasury) at the outbreak of the war, this must be added the surplus of the extraordinary budget of 1914-1915, which, instead of the expected $5-000,000,000 marks ($14,000,000,000), amounted to 21,000,000,000 marks ($54,750,000,000)."

"Beyond this, greater amounts must be raised provisionally by discounting imperial exchequer bonds at the reichsbank and private banks. The sums expended remained within the country, with the exception of unimportant amounts."

Continuing, Dr. Helfferich declared speculative business which already had been said that he was suspended as all available money was needed by the federal imperial exchequer bonds at the reichs-
bank and private banks. The sums expended remained within the country,

BANK CLEARINGS GAIN 11 PER CENT THIS WEEK

Figures Show Marked Increase Over Those of Week a Year Ago

Atlanta bank clearings for the week show an increase of $1,078,172.87 over the corresponding period last year, or a gain of slightly over 11 per cent.

This comparison is for the week ending Saturday, which is the period taken by the Atlanta Clearing House association, instead of the period from Thursday to Thursday taken by Bradstreet's.

"This is the first increase reported in the clearing house for over a year, although Bradstreet's had reported previous increases. Comparison is with the period following the outbreak of the war when all the exchanges were closed and there was no market for cotton. It shows what an improvement has taken place since that period."

Only one day during the week did the clearings show a decrease. Saturday's figures were $1,547,021.33 against $1-448,471.08 last year, a gain of $198,550-252.

The total clearings for the week were $10,744,508.32, against $9,666,435.66 for the corresponding week last year, a gain of $1,078,172.87 in favor of this week, or a little over 11 per cent.

derstanding that he would be given a three month leave of absence to perform his duties as clerk of the house turn to London about September 1, but the necessity for an extra session, which he will have to attend, has obliged him to rearrange his plans.

Mr. McClatchey, of the secretary of the senate, will return to his position with

YOUNG ATLANTA GIRL

the death of her father last week has her. They are preparing to send her to a sanitarium, and for this purpose are raising a fund. Those who can con-

FAIR, CLEAR WEATHER TO BRING GOOD CHEER

Fog and Rain Have Gone and Touch of Autumn Is in the Air

After fourteen depressing days of rain, fog and murky clouds, Atlanta woke up Saturday to find itself bathed in sparkling sunshine, with a crisp touch of autumn in the air. It was very refreshing.

The rain made a record for this summer, said the weather man, with its fourteen straight days of rain. It was said, there are only ten more days of summer left, and these, he predicts, will be fine and clear, and the autumn, however.

The mercury Saturday was below normal. Its bulb has been cooled in rain for so long that it decided to stay cool despite the sun, and registered as low as 69 degrees at 5 o'clock in the morning. At 12:30 o'clock in the afternoon it had changed to 81, which is certainly not hot for school again, and the thermometer is not the only thing that shows signs of approaching autumn, however.

The stores are beginning to finish their summer sales and are already exhibiting fall hats and clothes for women and men in their windows; children are getting ready for school again, and ambassadors are coming back from the shore and mountains; most of our vacations are over, and with this cool, clear weather as the finishing touch, Atlanta is already beginning to feel that autumn is here.

Despite the fact that the calendar says it's still August, it'll be October again, and the light in the air is the light of autumn. The summer of 1915 is just about dead and gone.

Washington Awaits All Facts
From Officials Concerning Sinking of Arabic With Loss of American Lives

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.—It was announced at the state department today that Ambassador Gerard probably will be directed to call the German government's attention to the sinking of the White Star line Arabic and to invite an explanation.

This was the first indication from any official source that before President Wilson has an opportunity to give the reasons for the attack apparently in disregard of President Wilson's solemn warning that such an act would be regarded as deliberately unfriendly.

The state department's attitude is that if the German government has any facts, which, in the opinion of the state department, would justify the attack, such as an attempt to escape or an attempt to resist, or attack the submarine, the Berlin government should have opportunity to present them.

CHANCE FOR EXCUSE Today's announcement, moreover, indicates that before President Wilson has any action there may be some exchange of diplomatic communications.

It is understood that the state department's policy is to show the utmost deliberation consistent with the delicate situation and to omit the opportunity of avoiding a severance of relations with Germany so long as there is a reasonable expectation that a sufficient excuse can be given for the sinking of the Arabic.
Secretary Lansing said that the state department has been so far from any more than had been offered and was continuing to determine the government's course.

Although it has been reported that the German embassy had evidence that Captain Finch of the Arabic had been warned not to attempt to escape, the torpedo was discharged, it was said at the state department that the information that the Arabic was a reasonable excuse from the German embassy or from any other source.

FLEET ASSEMBLES
The Atlantic fleet, which has been engaged in maneuvers off the coast of Newport, R. I., last night. Practice in the maneuvers was held in the harbor of Newport, and the fleet was divided into two groups, each of which was formed a part of the maneuvers.

The entire fleet will leave Newport today morning for the Boston harbor where it will be reviewed on August 25 by President Wilson.

Whether the attack upon the Arabic was an act deliberately unfriendly to the United States, the state department is not prepared to say. It is noted that the Arabic was a German ship, and that at least two American citizens were on board when the vessel went down.

EDWARDS ARE WILSON, WHOEVER WE NEEDS NO NEWSPAPERS COMMENTING ON Present Crisis With Germany Are Agreed That President Will Do Right Thing

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.—Newspapers throughout the United States continued to comment today on the crisis between this country and Germany arising out of the Arabic tragedy. Latest reports indicated that two American liner ships were sunk when the German submarine sank the liner without warning.

Based on these reports, the editors of the country over declare that the United States is done with Germany now. That severance of diplomatic relations is the only viable course left for the president to take. However, the editors are almost unanimous in declaring that whatever course President Wilson chooses to take, the country is ready to back him in his stance.

NEW YORK WORLD: Our relations with Germany have reached a crisis, but that is all the more reason why we should be cool and self-possessed. These relations are the most serious because there seems to be no desire on the part of Germany to have them better except at the expense of American rights, American honor and American sovereignty.

To deal diplomatically with a government that shows no country for good faith is a difficult task. If President Wilson finally fails, all Americans will have the satisfaction of knowing that he has done his best and that no moral responsibility rests upon the United States, come what may.

NEW YORK TIMES: A disclaimer from Germany of any unfriendly intent, a disclaimer of the acts of the naval officers who sank the Lusitania and the Arabic would be most welcome. These statements are earnestly desired and undisturbed friendly relations with Germany. But if appeal and remonstrance fail, as they have repeatedly failed, other measures must be taken to defend and protect the rights Germany has violated.

NEW YORK HERALD: If, after the facts are all in, the president believes that the sinking of the Arabic is Germany's answer, and if, as would seem inevitable, he determines that he cannot act deliberately unfriendly to the people are confident that the president will in this new crisis maintain the principles that have been so plainly enunciated and that are so strongly indorsed by the country.

CHICAGO ABEND POST: Individuals and newspapers who without waiting to hear the facts and circumstances of the case declare the sinking of the Arabic to be deliberately unfriendly act in the name of the president's recent note to Germany and ask expectantly: "What now?" Show by this only that they are not the patriotic and sensible interest demands peace. No sane man believes that a war with Germany would benefit this country.

PORTLAND OREGONIAN: The attack on the Arabic is a challenge, definite and definite to President Wilson to take words with deeds.

CHIEFTAIN: It would be unreasonable to expect the German naval commanders to give free passage to a ship without warning when the same ship was serving as a war carrier on the eastbound trip.

LINCOLN (Neb.) JOURNAL: To torpedo the Arabic without warning would be an act of hostility toward the United States.

NEW YORK EVENING POST: It is useless to keep words to show how critical is the situation. The whole tale is not yet told, but enough is known to prove that the sinking of the Arabic is an act of deliberate hostility.

BROOKLYN PAUL: Assuming that all the circumstances are as reported, the first step will be to assemble the facts and to see that the rights of the country and simultaneously recall Mr. Gerard from Berlin. After that consultation will be ascertained to provide for whatever may be forced upon the country.

CHICAGO EVENING POST: If the Arabic, carrying American citizens, was sunk without warning, it would be a deliberate act of hostility.

MOBILE (ALA.) ITEM: If reports are correct that the Arabic was torpedoed without warning, it can be construed otherwise than as the "deliberately unfriendly" act which President Wilson warned the imperial German government would result otherwise than in the withdrawal of Ambassador Gerard from Berlin.

CHATTANOOGA TIMES: Unless later more complete details are received, a fair in a different light than now shed upon it, the relations between our government and that of Germany have reached a climax, from the consequences of which there is no possibility of retreat.

It remains for President Wilson to act in accordance with the policies he has laid down as covering any such incident as is now reported.

THE MOBILE REGISTER: The torpedoing of the Arabic represents an action of which our government said the reputation would be regarded as deliberately unfriendly rupture of friendly relations would be the natural consequence.

SUBMARINE VICTIM. This photograph shows the White Star liner Arabic coming bow on. The sinking of this ship by a German submarine causing the death of two Americans is likely to cause the severance of diplomatic relations between Germany and the U. S.

LONDON.—That Henry James has assumed his American citizenship and taken out naturalization papers as a British subject is the report on excellent authority which has become current here.

The reason for the novelist's decision was not stated authoritatively, but it was suggested that James, with this fashion to mark his dissatisfaction with the policy of the American government, particularly its abstention from any protest against what he regards as gross violations of the rights of humanity.

A newspaper man called upon James to ask him the reasons for his report were correct. He replied he did not wish to say anything on the subject at present.

James although still generally described as an American novelist has lived abroad since 1869, most of the time in England, and naturally has acquired strong British sympathies. He is in his seventy-third year, but at the outbreak of the war accepted the chairmanship of the American volunteer ambulance corps.

Mr. James is a favorite in London society and has a large following of literary women, who are known as the "very select." He has always had a competency and need not care whether his novels sell well or not.

Among his best-known stories are "Daisy Miller," "The Turn of Mind," "The Ambassadors," "What Maisie Knew," "The Sacred Fount," while among his other writings are "A Little Tour of France," "Diary of a Man of Fifty" and "Portraits of Places."

MERCHANTS ARE AGAINST TAKING UP PROHIBITION BILLS

Committee From Retail Merchants' Association Call on Governor Harris

A delegation representing the Atlanta Retail Merchants' association called on Governor Harris Saturday morning and urged him not to include prohibition in his call for the extra session of the legislature.

The delegation was headed by F. J. Paxson, president of the association, and included also the vice president, H. A. Maier, as well as a number of other prominent members of the association.

The governor stated Saturday that he will make known to the people next Tuesday, August 24, his decision as to the date for the extra session to convene and as to the matters he will include in the call.

The delegation from the merchants' association presented Governor Harris the following resolutions adopted by that body:

"Whereas it is imperative that an extraordinary session of the legislature be called at an early date; and, "Whereas the governor of this state is uncertain whether to include prohibition in his call;

"Be it resolved, That it is not a question whether it is against prohibition, or for same, it is a question solely that it would be unwise, on account of unrest in business and other matters for the past twelve months, to precipitate a long and lengthy discussion in the legislature, a discussion that would interfere very largely with business and the good result therefrom; therefore,

Be it resolved, That the executive committee of the organization respectfully request Governor Harris not to include the subject of prohibition in his call for the extra session of the legislature.

"Unanimously adopted."

WORK ON EMORY CAMPUS PROGRESSING RAPIDLY

Four New Buildings to Be Erected Within Year—New Dormitory Rented

Work is under way on the campus of Emory university in Druid Hills and the chancellor, Bishop Warren A. Chandler, announced Friday that four new buildings will be erected within the next twelve months. The building formerly occupied by the University club on Peachtree street, near the governor's mansion, has been rented by the university to be used as a dormitory to accommodate the increased enrollment in the Chandler School of Theology.

An unusual number of requests for catalogues and other information have come from every part of the country. In the student body there will be young men from every southern state, and some from as far west as California. It is known that two Korean students will attend Emory college, the school of liberal arts of the university, at Oxford. Another Korean will enter the school of medicine in Atlanta.

NEW BUILDING RENTED.—Already such an increased attendance in the school of theology is assured that it has been necessary to rent another dormitory to accommodate all who are coming. The large building formerly occupied by the University club, located near the governor's mansion on Peachtree street, has been leased for this purpose.

GIFTS TO UNIVERSITY.—A distinguished lawyer in Tennessee has sent the chancellor of the university $2,000—as the initial contribution for the building of the law school. The law school of the University of Missouri has sent $1,000 as a loan to aid young preachers. Prof. H. W. Arant, who has been the assistant of ex-President Taft in the Yale law school, has sent a set of "Parsons' Records of the Federal Convention," which framed our national constitution. This is the first contribution of books for the library of the law school. Other cash donations of $1,000 have been received from Alabama and Mississippi.

MRS. PURTELL ASKS FOR $10,000 IN DAMAGES.—Alleges She Was Injured While Alighting From Street Car.

Mrs. Sarah J. Purtell, who has been identified with many charitable and philanthropic enterprises in Atlanta, Saturday morning instituted suit for $10,000 against the Georgia Railway and Power company. She alleges that she sustained painful injuries when alighting from a trolley car in West End on May 15, 1914.

The petitioner asserts that as she disembarked from a pay-as-you-enter car on Gordon street, via the front door, the motorman closed the door and she fell the step before she had alighted. The step caught her dress, it is alleged, and she was dragged for a distance of forty feet, sustaining painful injuries.

APPEALS TO DOCTORS TO AID IN DRUG CAMPAIGN

Victims Should Have Help During Enforcement of Law, Declares Alexander

Hooper Alexander, United States district attorney, has called on the doctors of Atlanta to co-operate with the government and arrange some means by which drug fiends, many of whom are in a pitiable condition as a result of the enforcement of the anti-narcotic act, may be given treatment.

With this end in view, Mr. Alexander will on Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock confer with Dr. Stewart Roberts, president of the Fulton County Medical association; A. O. Blalock, internal revenue collector; and D. J. Gantt, the revenue agent here.

Mr. Alexander said that if the city would employ a physician to stay on duty at Grady hospital and administer decreasing doses of drugs to addicts, thus enabling them to shake off the habit without suffering, that by Christ-mas there would not be a drug fiend left in Atlanta.

"I am convinced that the enforcement of the law is creating many hardships among drug fiends," Mr. Alexander said Saturday. "Some of the cases that have come under my observation are distressing."

"I have just seen three young fellows who are addicted to drugs. They tell me that they got into the habit by the time they were out of short trousers. They now want to quit, and are willing to do anything possible to do so."

"If I can get the doctors and druggists to co-operate, and I know I can, we can break up the illegal drug traffic in this city by Christmas. This department will see to it that the shysters who make money out of the business are handled."

"I think that I can safely say that the drug traffic in Atlanta during the past week has been reduced fully half. The men who have been handling the traffic have been frightened off pretty well."

"My object in conferring with Mr. Roberts is to see whether some means cannot be devised by which drug fiends can be treated and taken care of until they are cured. My idea is that the city should employ a doctor to stay at the Grady hospital and prescribe proper amounts of drugs to victims until, through the tapering off process, they are fully cured."

BLUE RIDGE SOLICITOR WILL PROBE LYNCHING

Herbert Clay Tells Governor Special Grand Jury Investigation Will Be Made

Herbert Clay, of Marietta, solicitor general of the Blue Ridge circuit, which circuit includes Cobb county, called on Governor Harris Saturday morning and assured the governor that he would exert every effort within his power to detect the members of the mob that lynched Leo M. Frank, and to bring them to justice.

Solicitor Clay further informed the governor that Judge H. L. Patterson, the presiding judge of the Blue Ridge circuit, has called a special term of the superior court in Cobb county on the last Monday in August, for the purpose of directing a special grand jury investigation of the lynching.

Governor Harris was very much gratified over the promptness of Solicitor Clay in coming to Atlanta to confer with him in regard to the lynching, and with the solicitor's evident sincerity in desiring to leave no stone unturned to punish the men who took the law into their own hands.

The governor expects the judge and solicitor of the Blue Ridge circuit to confer with him in regard to the lynching, and the solicitor's evident sincerity in desiring to leave no stone unturned to punish the men who took the law into their own hands.

PEACHTREE ROAD WILL HAVE A NEW SURFACE

Peachtree road from Brookwood to Buckhead is to be resurfaced by the county. This decision was reached Saturday morning at a meeting of the public works committee of the county commission.

The road will be scarified and oiled, and when the work is completed will furnish one of the finest highways around Atlanta. It has been some years since the road was paved, and in the meantime the street has been badly worn by the heavy traffic.

BRITISHERS NOT COMING TO ASK FOR A LOAN

LONDON, Aug. 21.—It would be an error to suppose the British financial delegation is going to America to negotiate a loan, says the Times. Subject: War With the Philistines.
The Reform of Jonathan (1 Sam. xii and xiv).

BY DR. C. B. WILKINS.

THE ability to do daring deeds trusting in God and using all the most valuable quality of human nature, but like all good qualities, it is liable to be abused.

The victory which the Israelites won over the Philistines was the result of the faith of Jonathan and his men. Jonathan, a young man of noble character, was the son of King David. He was a man of great courage and faith, and he was the first to suggest that the Israelites should fight the Philistines. He was a man of great courage and faith, and he was the first to suggest that the Israelites should fight the Philistines.

Not waiting to be attacked, Jonathan overpowered the Philistines at Bethshimon. He was a man of great courage and faith, and he was the first to suggest that the Israelites should fight the Philistines. He was a man of great courage and faith, and he was the first to suggest that the Israelites should fight the Philistines.

SAUL'S RASH COMMAND. Saul saw and seized the opportunity. He was a man of great courage and faith, and he was the first to suggest that the Israelites should fight the Philistines. WEEKLY COTTON REVIEW

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—The cotton market has been extremely nervous and irregular during the past week with sentiment disturbed by uncertainty as to the effects of the season's crop, and, more recently, by apprehensions that the situation might further complicate international relations. Prices at the close of business today ruled around 5.50 per pound, up 0.02 from December, comparing with 9.34 at the close of the previous week. Reports of rapidly increasing movement of new crop in the south, accompanied by scattered selling here for Texas account,

At the beginning of the week, when harsh season was also encouraged by rains in some of the drouthy sections, the weakness in stock prices became apparent. The cattle market added to their contraction last week. The decline was checked around 9.46 for December contracts by the appearance of the tropic storm which led to apprehensions of considerable damage in the Texas fields, while covering was also promoted by a withdrawal of southwestern offerings and private crop reports indicating that the deterioration in crops promised during the first half of the August the excess of the average. Many traders, however, thought that the cotton company's offer in the form of the eastern belt would produce a record for the ultimate yield, and the market increased offerings on a rally to 9.46 1/2 December, with yesterday's fluctuations very irregular, owing to nervousness over international conditions. Liverpool was credited with buying largely for the week, and the price of the No. 1 old strading and good middling cotton was 10.00. A pessimistic sentiment was created by reports that southern bankers were prepared to assist a determined new crop holding movement and claims that the contraband declaration had been discounted.
